

An invitation to all singers!

Join Eversley as an associate to rehearse and perform

Bach's St John Passion

in the unique surroundings of Capernwray Hall

27 February 2027, 2.30pm

Previous Eversley concerts at Capernwray, including last year's Messiah, have been very popular with both audience and performers. In 2027 we will perform the Bach St John Passion, in English, under the direction of our distinguished Musical Director, Ian Jones, with excellent professional soloists, and a full orchestra of experienced local players, led by Pam Redman. As always for our Capernwray concerts, the choir is inviting local singers to join as associates to share in this exciting musical opportunity. Why not join Eversley for the short time needed to rehearse and perform this splendid work in a unique location?

- Rehearsals will take place on Monday evenings, 7pm-9.15pm, as follows:
 - 7, 14, 21, 28 September 2026 (4 rehearsals)
 - After a break while Eversley prepares its Christmas concert, rehearsals for the St John Passion will continue through January and February 2027, beginning on 4 January (8 rehearsals)
- There will additionally be a Saturday morning workshop on 3 October 2026, 10am-1pm, and extra rehearsals with the orchestra on Tuesday 23 February 2027 and the morning of the concert.
- *With the exception of the last rehearsal at Capernwray, all rehearsals will take place in the comfortable and well-equipped Borwick and Priest Hutton Memorial Hall, Carnforth, LA6 1JP.
- Fee for associate singers, including hire of music: £40.
